

LEN HUCKABAY

CPCC, PCC

Certified Executive Leadership Coach and Master Facilitator

With master class level results, Len combines curiosity and experience to constantly set new standards for leadership.

BRIGHT WIRE

Whatever capacity Len is working in, he leverages both his coaching expertise and diverse business background to make learning an enjoyable and rewarding experience for both his clients and Bright Wire teammates. With more than 30 years of applicable experience, Len has led large teams and managed multimillion-dollar budgets.

He has partnered with numerous senior and executive-level leaders and teams to help individuals and organizations alike to achieve their goals. Len coaches leaders at all levels of organizations to help clients build a sustainable leadership presence by focusing on their self-awareness, intention, impact, and emotional intelligence.

Len has worked with clients across Canada, the continent, and the world. His wealth of experience spans many industries including oil and gas, transportation, finance, insurance, not-for-profit, IT, professional services, and government. In addition to his role as Certified Executive Leadership Coach, Master Facilitator, and Emotional Intelligence Specialist with Bright Wire, he has successfully led hundreds of highly regarded leadership development workshops, strategic planning sessions, and coaching skills training programs including Train the Trainer.

Credentials and Designations

- Professional Certified Coach with the International Coach Federation (ICF)
- Certified Professional Co-Active Coach (CPCC)
- EQ-i 2.0 & EQi-360 certified