BRIGHT WIRE

As a testament to both his expertise in the space, as well as the respect he is paid by his peers, Ed has previously served as the President of the International Coaching Federation's Calgary chapter. He has worked with front line to senior and executive leaders from the energy, banking, transportation, utilities, small business, and not-for-profit sectors.

Ed has facilitated countless leadership and high-performance team workshops and is accredited in many leading performance and personality assessments. Ed co-leads Bright Wire's High Performance Team Professional Coaching Practice and shares Bright Wire's passion for giving back to the community.

Ed is an active member of the community, volunteering with the United Way, and as the Board Chair for CAUSE Canada. In addition to this, he helped launch the SEEDS (Social Enterprise Excelerator Development System) program in Alberta, helping train more than 300 charitable leaders across the province.
