Certified Executive Leadership Coach and Master Facilitator

Robynn empowers human connection to achieve extraordinary results.

BRIGHT WIRE

Robynn leverages her deep understanding of neuroscience and human dynamics to approach challenges through a systemic lens that results in lasting positive change for her clients. With 20+ years of experience leading across industries, she provides just the right mixture of structure and space to support leaders and teams to aim higher and to make that ambition a reality.

With extensive experience partnering with leaders from C-Suite to mid-level and front-line managers across private, public and NFP sectors, Robynn puts her considerable coaching, facilitation, and public speaking skills to use to ensure lasting and impactful results.

Growth minded in her approach, Robynn is always seeking opportunities to hone her craft, including co-authoring "Being a Better Human Being: a Kick-Ass Reminder to be Better," speaking at conferences, and appearing as a guest on a number of forward-thinking podcasts.
