

FABIANA GENNARI

M.Ed, CHRP, PCC

Certified Executive Leadership Coach and Master Facilitator

Fabiana believes in resilience and courage to take the road less travelled, igniting growth mindsets for high performance leadership.

BRIGHT WIRE

Fabiana has had the pleasure of working with inspiring leaders in extraordinary companies, across several sectors, delivering coaching and formal leadership programs that “close the leadership gap”.

Fabiana is an advocate of humanity in the workplace and the concept of servant leadership to inspire and ignite engagement across teams. She has witnessed incredible growth when people work with their superpowers. She has partnered with leading organizations across a variety of sectors, nationally and internationally, in designing and executing leadership development strategies, coaching programs and innovative team building. Fabiana is a firm believer that relationships are the primary medium for learning and growth and swears by laughter in the workplace!

Fabiana previously served as the Director of Professional Development and Programs for the Women Communications and Technology Board (WCT), BC Chapter. She has mentored several emerging leaders and coached female and gender diverse professionals to ensure their success.

Fabiana is an active member of her community, volunteering with the Union Gospel Mission and most recently overseas with United Planet.
