BRIGHT WIRE

In a career spanning more than four decades, Peter has worked at the most senior levels in global business, as well as on the executive teams of Canadian energy companies. He has also consulted for companies across a wide range of sectors.

He understands the often-lonely experience of being a leader. This personal empathy informs his coaching as he helps senior and other, high-potential, business people see their paths and move forward.

He also shares Bright Wire’s passion for giving back to the community. He has served on the boards of several large charities and spent two years on secondment as Marketing Manager for The Prince’s Youth Business Trust, playing a key role in establishing this charitable organization for The Prince of Wales.
